- 20.5. If any money remains in the Settlement Fund after the date that all settlement checks (i.e., initial settlement checks, and if applicable, second settlement checks) are voided due to non-deposit (i.e. checks that Settlement Class Members do not cash), this amount will be paid as a cy pres award to the National Legal Aid and Defender Association, subject to the Court's approval.

21. Taxes:

- 21.1. Plaintiff and Defendant agree that the account into which the Settlement Fund is deposited is intended to be and will at all times constitute a "qualified settlement fund" within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.468B-1. The Claims Administrator will timely make elections as necessary or advisable to carry out required duties including, if necessary, the "relation back election" (as defined in Treas. Reg. § 1.468B-1(j)(2)) back to the earliest permitted date. These elections will be made in compliance with the procedures and requirements contained in applicable Treasury Regulations promulgated under the Code. It is the responsibility of the Claims Administrator to

- 21.2. For the purpose of Section 468B of the Code and the Treasury Regulations thereunder, the Claims Administrator will be designated as the “administrator” of the Settlement Fund. The Claims Administrator will cause to be timely and properly filed all informational and other tax returns necessary or advisable with respect to the non-reversionary Settlement Fund (including, without limitation, tax returns described in Treas. Reg. § 1.468B-2(k)). These returns will reflect that all taxes (including any estimated taxes, interest or penalties) on the income earned by the non-reversionary Settlement Fund are to be paid out of the Settlement Fund.
- 21.3. All taxes arising in connection with income earned by the Settlement Fund, including any taxes or tax detriments that may be imposed upon Defendant with respect to any income earned by the Settlement Fund for any period during which the Settlement Fund does not qualify as a “qualified settlement fund” for federal or state income tax purposes, will be paid by the Claims Administrator from the Settlement Fund.
- 21.4. Any person or entity that receives a distribution from the Settlement Fund will be solely responsible for any taxes or tax-related expenses owed or incurred by that person or entity by reason of that distribution. These taxes and tax-related expenses will not be paid from the Settlement Fund.
- 21.5. In no event will Defendant or any of the other Released Parties have any responsibility or liability for taxes or tax-related expenses arising in connection with the payment or distribution of the Settlement Fund to Plaintiff, Settlement Class Members, Class Counsel or any other person or entity. All such taxes and tax-related expenses shall be paid out of the Settlement Fund.
- 21.6. Defendant shall timely deliver to the Claims Administrator a “Section 1.468B-3 Statement” (as provided in Treas. Reg Section 1.468B-3(e)) with respect to any transfers made to the Settlement Fund.
- 21.7. The Claims Administrator will engage in reporting to the Internal Revenue Service and such other state and local taxing authorities as may be required by law. The parties acknowledge that the Claims Administrator will comply with all withholding obligations as required under the applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code and such other state and local laws as may be applicable, and the regulations promulgated thereunder. In addition, the Claims Administrator shall be obligated (notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary) to withhold from distribution to any Settlement Class Member any funds necessary to pay such amounts including the establishment of adequate reserves for any taxes and tax-related expenses (as well as any amounts that may be required to be withheld under Treas. Reg. § 1.468B-2(1)(2)). The Parties agree to cooperate with the Claims Administrator, each other, and their attorneys and accountants to the extent reasonably necessary to carry out the provisions of this paragraph.

- 21.8. Defendant makes no representation to Plaintiff, Settlement Class Members, Class Counsel or any other person or entity regarding the appropriate tax treatment of the Settlement Fund, income earned on the Settlement Fund, or any distribution taken from the Settlement Fund.
- 21.9. The parties agree that payments made to the Settlement Fund are compensatory only and not payments made to satisfy any fines, penalties, punitive damages, or prejudgment interest nor are such payments “to, or at the direction of, a government or governmental entity in relation to the violation of any law or the investigation or inquiry by such government or entity into the potential violation of any law” within the meaning of Section 162(f) of the Code.

22. Stay:

- 22.1. Plaintiff and Defendant stipulate that all proceedings in connection with this matter should be stayed until the Court issues its decision regarding final approval of the Settlement.
- 22.2. The stipulated stay of proceedings will not prevent the filing of any motions, affidavits, and other matters necessary to obtain and preserve preliminary and final approval of the Settlement.

23. Miscellaneous Provisions:

This is a notice of a settlement of a class action lawsuit.

This is not a notice of a lawsuit against you.

If you are a person to whose cellular telephone number Register.com, Inc.¹ (“Register.com”) placed a call, in connection with which it used an artificial or prerecorded voice, from February 12, 2021 through November 24, 2025, and after the cellular telephone number was permanently disconnected and made available for reassignment per the Federal Communications Commission’s (“FCC”) Reassigned Numbers Database (“RND”), you may be entitled to compensation as a result of the settlement in the class action lawsuit captioned:

Lewis v. Register.com, Inc., No. 1:25-cv-275 (S.D. Ind.)

A federal court authorized this notice.

This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

Please read this notice carefully.

It explains your rights and options to participate in the class action settlement.

- The settlement will result in $1,500,000 to settle and release certain claims of persons to whom Register.com, Inc. placed a call, directed to a telephone number assigned to a cellular telephone service, in connection with which Register.com used an artificial or prerecorded voice, from February 12, 2021 through November 24, 2025, and after the cellular telephone number was permanently disconnected and made available for reassignment per the FCC’s RND.
- The settlement fund will be used to pay settlement amounts to approved settlement class members who elect to participate in the settlement, after deducting the costs of settlement notice and administration, attorneys’ fees, litigation costs and expenses, and an incentive award.
- If you are a settlement class member, your legal rights are affected, and you now have a choice to make:

¹ The conduct of Register.com, Inc. is the subject of this lawsuit and settlement. On July 25, 2025, Register.com, Inc., merged into Network Solutions, LLC and Network Solutions, LLC is the surviving entity. Any of the subject telephone calls made on or after July 25, 2025 would have been made by Network Solutions, LLC.

SUBMIT A TIMELY CLAIM FORM:	If you submit an approved claim form by [date], you will receive a share of the settlement fund after certain deductions, and you will release certain legal claims, including those arising under the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (“TCPA”), 47 U.S.C. § 227, you may have against Register.com/Network Solutions, LLC.
DO NOTHING:	If you do nothing, you will not receive a share of the settlement fund, but if you are a settlement class member you will release certain legal claims, including those arising under the TCPA, you may have against Register.com/Network Solutions, LLC.
EXCLUDE YOURSELF:	If you exclude yourself from the settlement, you will not receive a share of the settlement fund, and you will not release any legal claims you may have against Register.com/Network Solutions, LLC. The deadline to exclude yourself is [date].
OBJECT:	Write to the court about why you do not like the settlement. The deadline to object is [date].

Why is this notice available?

This is a notice of a settlement in a class action lawsuit. The settlement would resolve the class action lawsuit Tiffany Lewis filed against Register.com. Please read this notice carefully. It explains the class action lawsuit, the settlement, and legal rights you may have, including the process for receiving a settlement check, excluding yourself from the settlement, or objecting to the settlement.

What is the class action about?

Ms. Lewis filed a class action lawsuit against Register.com alleging that Register.com violated the TCPA by placing certain calls to cellular telephone numbers in connection with which Register.com used an artificial or prerecorded voice absent prior express consent. The TCPA allows for damages in the amount of $500 per violation, and up to $1,500 for willful violations. However, prior express consent is a complete defense to a claim under the TCPA. You can find additional information about Ms. Lewis’s claims in her amended class action complaint, which is available at www.registerTCPAsettlement.com in the [court documents section].

Why is this a class action?

In a class action, one or more people called “class representatives” file a class action lawsuit on behalf of people who have similar claims. All of these people together are a “class” or “class members.” The court accordingly resolves claims for all class members at once, except for those who first exclude themselves from the class.

Why is there a settlement?

Ms. Lewis, on the one hand, and Register.com (now Network Solutions, LLC), on the other, have agreed to settle the class action lawsuit to avoid the time, risk, and expense associated with further litigation, and to achieve a final resolution of the disputed claims. Under the settlement, settlement class members will obtain a payment in exchange for the settlement of claims Ms. Lewis raised in the class action lawsuit. Ms. Lewis and her attorneys think the settlement is fair and reasonable.

How do you know if your claims are included in the settlement?

The settlement resolves claims on behalf of the following settlement class:

All persons and entities throughout the United States (1) to whom Register.com, Inc. placed a call, (2) directed to a telephone number assigned to a cellular telephone service, (3) in connection with which Register.com, Inc. used an artificial or prerecorded voice, (4) from February 12, 2021 through November 24, 2025, and (5) after the cellular telephone number was permanently disconnected and made available for reassignment per the Federal Communications Commission’s Reassigned Numbers Database.

Register.com states that from February 12, 2021 through November 24, 2025 it placed 1,652 calls in connection with which it used an artificial or prerecorded voice to 453 telephone numbers assigned to a cellular telephone service after the telephone numbers were permanently disconnected and made available for reassignment per the FCC’s RND.

What does the settlement provide?

Register.com will establish a settlement fund in the amount of $1,500,000 to compensate members of the settlement class. Out of the settlement fund will be paid:

- a. Settlement compensation to participating, approved settlement class members;
- b. Notice and administration costs;
- c. An award of attorneys’ fees not to exceed one-third of the settlement fund, subject to the court’s approval;

d. Litigation costs and expenses incurred in litigating the TCPA claims in this matter not to exceed $25,000, subject to the court's approval; and

e. An incentive award to Ms. Lewis not to exceed $10,000, subject to the court's approval.

Each member of the settlement class who submits an approved claim form will be entitled, subject to the provisions of the settlement agreement, to his or her equal share of the $1,500,000 settlement fund as it exists after deducting:

- a. Notice and administration costs (including related taxes and expenses);
- b. A $10,000 incentive award for Ms. Lewis's service to the class;
- c. An award of attorneys' fees; and
- d. Litigation costs and expenses incurred in litigating the claims in this matter.

The settlement provides for more than $3,300 per potentially affected cellular telephone number. The actual amount each participating, approved member of the settlement class will receive depends on the number of settlement class members who submit approved claims.

How can you get a payment?

You must mail a valid, approved claim form to the Lewis v. Register.com, Inc. Settlement Administrator, [address], [city], [state] [zip code] postmarked by [date]. Or you must submit a valid, approved claim through www.registerTCPAsettlement.com by [date].

When will you be paid?

If the court grants final approval of the settlement, settlement checks will be mailed no later than 30 days after the judgment in the lawsuit becomes final to settlement class members who submitted approved claim forms. If there is an appeal of the settlement, payment may be delayed.

What rights are you giving up in connection with this settlement?

If you fall within the settlement class, and unless you exclude yourself from the settlement, you will give up your right to sue or continue a lawsuit against Register.com over the released claims, as defined in the settlement agreement. Giving up your legal claims is called a release. If you fall within the settlement class, unless you formally exclude yourself from the settlement, you will release certain TCPA claims you may have against Register.com.

For more information about the release, released parties, and released claims, you may obtain a copy of the class action settlement agreement from the settlement website, www.registerTCPAsettlement.com, or from the clerk of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Indiana.

How can you exclude yourself from the settlement?

If you fall within the settlement class, you may exclude yourself from the settlement, in which case you will not receive a payment, and you will not release any TCPA claims you may have against Register.com. If you fall within the settlement class, and if you wish to exclude yourself from the settlement, you must mail a written request for exclusion to the claims administrator at the following address, postmarked by [date]:

Lewis v. Register.com, Inc. Settlement Administrator
ATTN: EXCLUSION REQUEST
[address]
[city], [state] [zip code]

You must include in your request for exclusion your:

- a. Full name;
- b. Address;
- c. Telephone number called by Register.com demonstrating that you are a member of the settlement class; and
- d. A clear and unambiguous statement that you wish to be excluded from the settlement, such as “I request to be excluded from the settlement in the Lewis v. Register.com Inc. action.”

You must sign the request personally. If any person signs on your behalf, that person must attach a copy of the power of attorney authorizing that signature.

When and where will the court decide whether to approve the settlement?

The court will hold a final fairness hearing on [date], at [time]. The hearing will take place by [by Zoom / in person]. At the final fairness hearing, the court will consider whether the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and, if so, whether final approval of the settlement should be granted. The court will also hear objections to the settlement, if any. The court may make a decision at that time, postpone a decision, or continue the hearing.

The date of the final fairness hearing may change without further notice. Settlement class members should check the settlement website, www.registerTCPAsettlement.com, or the court’s Public Access to Court Electronic Records (“PACER”) website to confirm that the date has not changed.

Do you have to attend the final fairness hearing?

No, there is no requirement that you attend the final fairness hearing. However, you are welcome to attend the hearing, [by Zoom / in person], at your own expense. You cannot speak at the hearing if you have excluded yourself from the settlement class because the settlement no longer affects your legal rights.

What if you want to object to the settlement?

If you fall within the settlement class, and if you do not exclude yourself from the settlement class, you can object to the settlement, or any part of it, if you do not believe it is fair, reasonable, and adequate. If you fall within the settlement class, and if you wish to object, you must mail a written notice of objection, postmarked by [date], to class counsel, counsel for Register.com, and to the Court, at the following addresses:

- h. List of all witnesses that you intend to call by live testimony, deposition testimony, or affidavit or declaration testimony;

By filing an objection, you can ask the court to deny approval of the settlement. But you cannot ask the court to order a different settlement. The court can only approve or reject the settlement. If the court denies approval, no settlement payments will be sent out and the class action lawsuit will continue. If that is what you want to happen, you must object.

Any objection to the proposed settlement must be in writing. If you fall within the settlement class, and if you submit a timely written objection, you may, but are not required to, appear at the final fairness hearing, [by Zoom / in person]. If you appear through an attorney, you are responsible for hiring and paying that attorney.

What will happen if the court does not approve the settlement?

If the court does not finally approve the settlement, or if it finally approves the settlement and the approval is reversed on appeal, or if the settlement does not become final for some other reason, you will receive no benefits from the settlement, and the class action lawsuit will continue.

(PROPOSED) ORDER PRELIMINARILY APPROVING CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

This Court is advised that the parties to this action, Tiffany Lewis (“Plaintiff”) and Register.com, Inc.¹ (“Defendant”), through their respective counsel, have agreed, subject to this Court’s approval and following notice to the settlement class members and a hearing, to settle the above-captioned lawsuit (“Lawsuit”) upon the terms and conditions set forth in the parties’ class action settlement agreement (“Agreement”), which Plaintiff filed with this Court:

Based on the Agreement and all of the files, records, and proceedings in this matter, and upon preliminary examination, the proposed settlement appears fair, reasonable, and adequate, and a hearing should and will be held on [date], after notice to the settlement class members, to confirm that the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and to determine whether a final order and judgment should be entered in this Lawsuit:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the Lawsuit and over all settling parties.

In compliance with the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005, 28 U.S.C. §§ 1332(d), 1453, and 1711-1715, Defendant will cause to be served written notice of the class settlement on the United States Attorney General and the Attorneys General of each state in which any settlement class member resides.

This Court preliminarily certifies this case as a class action under Rule 23(b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on behalf of the following settlement class:

All persons and entities throughout the United States (1) to whom Register.com, Inc. placed a call, (2) directed to a telephone number assigned to a cellular telephone service, (3) in connection with which Register.com, Inc. used an artificial or prerecorded voice, (4) from February 12, 2021 through November 24, 2025, and (5) after the cellular telephone number was permanently disconnected and made available for reassignment per the Federal Communications Commission's Reassigned Numbers Database.

Defendant states that from February 12, 2021 through November 24, 2025 it placed 1,652 calls in connection with which it used an artificial or prerecorded voice to 453 telephone numbers assigned to a cellular telephone service after the telephone numbers were permanently disconnected and made available for reassignment per the Federal Communications Commission's Reassigned Numbers Database. The subject release is tied to these telephone numbers and these calls.

This Court appoints Plaintiff as the representative for the settlement class, and appoints Anthony Paronich of Paronich Law, P.C. and Aaron Radbil of Greenwald Davidson Radbil PLLC (“GDR”) as class counsel for the settlement class.

This Court preliminarily finds, for settlement purposes, that this action satisfies the applicable prerequisites for class action treatment under Rule 23, namely:

- A. The settlement class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable;
- B. Common questions exist as to each settlement class member;
- C. Plaintiff’s claims are typical of the claims of the settlement class members;
- D. Plaintiff and class counsel will fairly and adequately protect the interests of all of settlement class members;
- E. Questions common to settlement class members predominate over any questions affecting only individual members; and
- F. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this matter.

This Court also preliminarily finds that the settlement of the Lawsuit, on the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement, is in all respects fundamentally fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interest of the settlement class members, when considering, in their totality, the following factors: (1) the existence of fraud or collusion behind the settlement; (2) the complexity, expense, and likely duration of the litigation; (3) the stage of the proceedings and the amount of discovery completed; (4) the probability of Plaintiff’s success on the merits; (5) the range of possible recovery; and (6) the opinions of the class counsel, class representative, and the substance and amount of opposition to the settlement.

This Court also considered the following factors in preliminarily finding that the settlement of the Lawsuit, on the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement, is in all respects fundamentally fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interest of the settlement class members:

- (A) whether Plaintiff and class counsel have adequately represented the class;
- (B) whether the proposal was negotiated at arm's length;
- (C) whether the relief provided for the class is adequate, taking into account:
 - (i) the costs, risks, and delay of trial and appeal;
 - (ii) the effectiveness of any proposed method of distributing relief to the class, including the method of processing class-member claims;
 - (iii) the terms of any proposed award of attorney's fees, including timing of payment; and
 - (iv) any agreement required to be identified under Rule 23(e)(3); and
- (D) whether the proposal treats class members equitably relative to each other.

Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2).

A third-party settlement administrator—Kroll, LLC (“Kroll”)—will administer the settlement and distribute notice of the settlement to the settlement class members. Kroll will be responsible for mailing the approved class action notices and settlement checks to the settlement class members. All reasonable costs of notice and administration will be paid from the $1,500,000 common fund.

This Court approves the form and substance of the proposed notice of the class action settlement, which includes the postcard notice, the detachable claim form, and the question-and-answer notice to appear on the dedicated settlement website.

The proposed notice and method for notifying the settlement class members of the settlement and its terms and conditions meet the requirements of Rule 23(c)(2)(B) and due process, constitute the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and constitute due and sufficient notice to all persons and entities entitled to the notice. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B).

This Court additionally finds that the proposed notice is clearly designed to advise the settlement class members of their rights.

In accordance with the Agreement, the settlement administrator will mail the notice to the settlement class members as expeditiously as possible, but in no event later than 30 days after this Court's entry of this order, i.e., [date].

Any settlement class member who desires to be excluded from the settlement must send a written request for exclusion to the settlement administrator with a postmark date no later than 75 days after this Court's entry of this order, i.e., no later than [date]. To be effective, the written request for exclusion must state the settlement class member's full name, address, telephone number called by Defendant demonstrating membership in the settlement class, and a clear and unambiguous statement demonstrating a wish to be excluded from the settlement, such as "I request to be excluded from the settlement in the Lewis v. Register.com, Inc., action." A settlement class member who requests to be excluded from the settlement must sign the request personally, or, if any person signs on the settlement class member's behalf, that person must attach a copy of the power of attorney authorizing that signature. A settlement class member may exclude herself or himself on an individual basis only. "Mass" or "class" opt-outs, whether submitted by third parties on behalf of a "mass" or "class" of settlement class members or multiple settlement class members are not allowed, and will not be permitted by the Court.

Any settlement class member who submits a valid and timely request for exclusion will not be bound by the terms of the Agreement. Any settlement class member who fails to submit a valid and timely request for exclusion will be considered a settlement class member and will be bound by the terms of the Agreement.

Any settlement class member who intends to object to the fairness of the proposed settlement must file a written objection with this Court within 75 days after this Court's entry of this order, i.e., no later than [date]. Further, any such settlement class member must, within the same time period, provide a copy of the written objection to:

United States District Court for the Southern District of Indiana
46 East Ohio Street
Indianapolis, IN 46204

To be effective, a notice of intent to object to the settlement must include the settlement class member's:

- a. Full name;
- b. Address;

- c. Telephone number to which Defendant placed a subject artificial or prerecorded voice call from February 12, 2021 through November 24, 2025, to demonstrate that the objector is a member of the settlement class;
- d. A statement of the objection;
- e. A description of the facts underlying the objection;
- f. A description of the legal authorities that support each objection;
- g. A statement noting whether the objector intends to appear at the fairness hearing;
- h. A list of all witnesses that the objector intends to call by live testimony, deposition testimony, or affidavit or declaration testimony;
- i. A list of exhibits that the objector intends to present at the fairness hearing; and
- j. A signature from the settlement class member.

Any settlement class member who has timely filed an objection may appear at the final fairness hearing, in person or by counsel, to be heard to the extent allowed by this Court, applying applicable law, in opposition to the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of the proposed settlement, and on the application for an award of attorneys' fees, costs, and litigation expenses.

Any objection that includes a request for exclusion will be treated as an exclusion and not an objection. And any settlement class member who submits both an exclusion and an objection will be treated as having excluded himself or herself from the settlement, and will have no standing to object.

If this Court grants final approval of the settlement, the settlement administrator will mail a settlement check to each settlement class member who submits a valid, timely claim.

This Court will conduct a final fairness hearing on [date], at the United States District Court for the Southern District of Indiana, 46 East Ohio Street, Indianapolis, IN, to determine:

- A. Whether this action satisfies the applicable prerequisites for class action treatment for settlement purposes under Rule 23;
- B. Whether the proposed settlement is fundamentally fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interest of the settlement class members and should be approved by this Court;
- C. Whether a final order and judgment, as provided under the Agreement, should be entered, dismissing the Lawsuit with prejudice and releasing the released claims against the released parties; and
- D. To discuss and review other issues as this Court deems appropriate.

Attendance by settlement class members at the final fairness hearing is not necessary. Settlement class members need not appear at the hearing or take any other action to indicate their approval of the proposed class action settlement. Settlement class members wishing to be heard are, however, required to appear at the final fairness hearing. The final fairness hearing may be postponed, adjourned, transferred, or continued without further notice to the class members.

Memoranda in support of the proposed settlement must be filed with this Court no later than thirty days before the final fairness hearing i.e., no later [date]. Opposition briefs to any of the foregoing must be filed no later than fourteen days before the final fairness hearing, i.e., no later than [date]. Reply memoranda in support of the foregoing must be filed with this Court no later than seven days before the final fairness hearing, i.e., no later than [date].

Memoranda in support of any petitions for attorneys' fees and reimbursement of costs and litigation expenses by class counsel, or in support of an incentive award, must be filed with this Court no later than thirty-five days before the deadline for settlement class members to object to, or exclude themselves from, the settlement (forty days after this Court's entry of this Order), i.e., no later than [date]. Opposition briefs to any of the foregoing must be filed no later than seventy-five days after entry of this Order, i.e., no later than [date]. Reply memoranda in support of the foregoing must be filed with this Court no later than fourteen days after the deadline for settlement class members to object to, or exclude themselves from, the settlement, i.e., no later than [date].

The Agreement and this order will be null and void if any of the parties terminates the Agreement per its terms. Certain events described in the Agreement, however, provide grounds for terminating the Agreement only after the parties have attempted and completed good faith negotiations to salvage the settlement but were unable to do so.

If the Agreement or this order are voided, then the Agreement will be of no force and effect and the parties' rights and defenses will be restored, without prejudice, to their respective positions as if the Agreement had never been executed and this order never entered.

This Court retains continuing and exclusive jurisdiction over the action to consider all further matters arising out of or connected with the settlement, including the administration and enforcement of the Agreement.

(PROPOSED) ORDER FINALLY APPROVING CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

Tiffany Lewis (“Plaintiff”) filed a class action complaint (the “Lawsuit”) against Register.com, Inc.¹ (“Defendant”) in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Indiana, Case No. 1:25-cv-275, asserting class claims under the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (“TCPA”), 47 U.S.C. § 227.

On or around [date], after extensive arm’s-length negotiations, Plaintiff and Defendant (the “Parties”) entered into a written class action settlement agreement (the “Agreement”), ECF No. [#], which is subject to review under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23.

On [date], the Parties filed the Agreement, along with Plaintiff’s unopposed motion for preliminary approval of class action settlement (the “Preliminary Approval Motion”). ECF No. [#].

In compliance with the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005, 28 U.S.C. §§ 1332(D), 1453, and 1711-1715, Defendant had served written notice of the proposed class settlement as directed.

On [date], upon consideration of Plaintiff’s Preliminary Approval Motion and the record, this Court entered an order preliminarily approving the class action settlement (“Order Preliminarily Approving the Settlement”). Pursuant to the Order Preliminarily Approving the Settlement, this Court, among other things, (i) preliminarily approved the proposed settlement and (ii) set the date and time of the final fairness hearing. ECF No. [#].

On [date], Plaintiff filed her motion for attorneys’ fees, costs, expenses, and an incentive award. ECF No. [#].

On [date], Plaintiff filed her motion for final approval of class action settlement (the “Final Approval Motion”). ECF No. [#].

On [date], a final fairness hearing was held pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23 to determine whether the claims asserted in the Lawsuit satisfy the applicable prerequisites for class action treatment and whether the proposed settlement is fundamentally fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interest of the settlement class members and should be approved by this Court.

The Parties now request final certification of the settlement class under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3) and final approval of the proposed class action settlement.

This Court has read and considered the Agreement, Final Approval Motion, and the record of these proceedings.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

The Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the Lawsuit and over all settling parties.

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3), and for the reasons this Court included in the Order Preliminarily Approving the Settlement, the Lawsuit is finally certified, for settlement purposes, as a class action on behalf of the following settlement class members with respect to the claims asserted in the Lawsuit:

All persons and entities throughout the United States (1) to whom Register.com, Inc./ placed a call, (2) directed to a telephone number assigned to a cellular telephone service, (3) in connection with which Register.com, Inc. used an artificial or prerecorded voice, (4) from February 12, 2021 through November 24, 2025, and (5) after the cellular telephone number was permanently disconnected and made available for reassignment per the Federal Communications Commission's ("FCC") Reassigned Numbers Database ("RND").

Defendant states that from February 12, 2021 through November 24, 2025 it placed 1,652 calls in connection with which it used an artificial or prerecorded voice to 453 telephone numbers assigned to a cellular telephone service after the telephone numbers were permanently disconnected and made available for reassignment per the FCC's RND. The subject release is tied to these telephone numbers and these calls.

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, this Court finally certifies Plaintiff as the class representative, and Anthony Paronich of Paronich Law, P.C. and Aaron D. Radbil of Greenwald Davidson Radbil PLLC ("GDR") as class counsel.

Pursuant to this Court's Order Preliminarily Approving the Settlement, the approved class action notices were mailed. The form and method for notifying the settlement class members of the settlement and its terms and conditions were in conformity with this Court's Order Preliminarily Approving the Settlement and satisfied the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B) and due process, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances. This Court finds that the notice was clearly designed to advise settlement class members of their rights.

This Court again finds, for the reasons this Court included in the Order Preliminarily Approving the Settlement, that the settlement class satisfies the applicable prerequisites for class action treatment under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, namely:

- A. The settlement class members are so numerous that joinder of all of them in the Lawsuit is impracticable;
- B. There are questions of law and fact common to the settlement class members, which predominate over any individual questions;
- C. Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the settlement class members;
- D. Plaintiff, Mr. Radbil, GDR, Mr. Paronich, and Paronich Law, P.C., have fairly and adequately represented and protected the interests of all settlement class members;
- E. Class treatment of these claims will be efficient and manageable, thereby achieving an appreciable measure of judicial economy; and
- F. A class action is superior to other available methods for a fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy.

This Court finds that that the settlement of the Lawsuit, on the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement, is in all respects fundamentally fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interest of the settlement class members, when considering, in their totality, the following factors:

- A. The existence of fraud or collusion behind the settlement:

The parties reached an agreement to resolve this matter only after mediating Plaintiff's claims against Defendant with mediator Aaron Weiss. The settlement is therefore not a product of collusion but was the result of arm's-length settlement negotiations, as directed by an experienced class action mediator.

- B. The complexity, expense, and likely duration of the litigation:

Significant motion practice lay ahead, including briefing on Plaintiff's motion for class certification, and competing motions for summary judgment. Given the considerable work already performed in this matter—and the work left to perform, including any appeals—settlement here is warranted.

C. The stage of the proceedings and the amount of discovery completed:

Courts also consider the degree of case development that class counsel have accomplished prior to settlement to ensure that counsel had an adequate appreciation of the merits of the case before negotiating. The parties engaged in significant discovery, focused both on Plaintiff's individual claims and on those of absent settlement class members. The settlement was, therefore, consummated when the parties were well-informed regarding the strengths and weaknesses of their respective positions.

D. The probability of Plaintiff's success on the merits:

With the assistance of a mediator, the Parties negotiated a settlement that compares favorably to other TCPA class action settlements. To be sure, the per-claimant recovery exceeds that of some other recently approved TCPA class action settlements. Further, the settlement provides class members with real monetary relief, despite the purely statutory damages at issue—damages that courts have deemed too small to incentivize individual actions. Therefore, because of the settlement, settlement class members will receive money they otherwise would have likely never pursued on their own.

In the end, the settlement constitutes an objectively favorable result for settlement class members, and outweighs the mere possibility of future relief after protracted and expensive litigation.

E. The opinions of Plaintiff, Paronich Law, and GDR:

GDR and Paronich Law are highly experienced in class action litigation, particularly in cases under the TCPA. GDR and Paronich Law firmly believe that the settlement is fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interests of class members.

The Court has also considered the following factors in finding that the settlement of this action, on the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement, is in all respects fundamentally fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interest of the settlement class members:

- (A) the class representatives and class counsel have adequately represented the class;
- (B) the proposal was negotiated at arm's length;
- (C) the relief provided for the class is adequate, taking into account:
 - (i) the costs, risks, and delay of trial and appeal;
 - (ii) the effectiveness of any proposed method of distributing relief to the class, including the method of processing class-member claims;
 - (iii) the terms of any proposed award of attorney's fees, including timing of payment; and
 - (iv) any agreement required to be identified under Rule 23(e)(3); and
- (D) the proposal treats class members equitably relative to each other.

Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2).

The Agreement, which is deemed incorporated into this order, is finally approved and must be consummated in accordance with its terms and provisions, except as amended by any order issued by this Court. The material terms of the Agreement include, but are not limited to, the following:

- A. Settlement Fund – Defendant established a $1,500,000 non-reversionary fund (the “Settlement Fund”).
- B. Deductions – The following are to be deducted from the Settlement Fund before any other distributions are made:

- a. The costs of notice to potential class members and claims administration;
- b. Attorneys' fees in the amount of [$];
- c. Costs and litigation expenses in the amount of [$]; and
- d. An incentive award in the amount of [$].

C. Settlement Payments to Class Members – Each settlement class member who submitted an approved claim form will receive compensation as set forth in the Agreement. Each settlement check will be void one-hundred twenty days after issuance.

The settlement class members were given an opportunity to object to the settlement. [#] settlement class members objected to the settlement or the requests for attorneys' fees, costs, expenses, or an incentive award. [#] settlement class members made a valid and timely request for exclusion.

This order is binding on all settlement class members, except the following individuals who made valid and timely requests for exclusion:

- [names];

Plaintiff and non-excluded settlement class members are permanently barred from pursuing, either individually or as a class, or in any other capacity, any of the released claims against the released party, as set forth in the Agreement. Pursuant to the release contained in the Agreement, the released claims are compromised, settled, released, and discharged, by virtue of these proceedings and this order.

This final order and judgment bars and permanently enjoins Plaintiff and all non-excluded members of the settlement class from (a) filing, commencing, prosecuting, intervening in or participating as a plaintiff, claimant or class member in any other lawsuit, arbitration or individual or class action proceeding in any jurisdiction (including by seeking to amend a pending complaint to include class allegations or seeking class certification in a pending action), asserting the released claims, and (b) attempting to effect opt-outs of a class of individuals in any lawsuit or arbitration proceeding based on the released claims, except that settlement class members are not precluded from addressing, contacting, dealing with, or complying with requests or inquiries from any governmental authorities relating to the issues raised in this Lawsuit or class action settlement.

The Lawsuit is hereby dismissed with prejudice in all respects.

This Order, the Agreement, and any and all negotiations, statements, documents, and proceedings in connection with this settlement are not, and will not be construed as, an admission by Defendant of any liability or wrongdoing in this or in any other proceeding.

This Court hereby retains continuing and exclusive jurisdiction over the Parties and all matters relating to the Lawsuit or Agreement, including the administration, interpretation, construction, effectuation, enforcement, and consummation of the settlement and this order, including the award of attorneys' fees, costs, disbursements, and expenses to class counsel.

For the reasons set forth in Plaintiff's motion for attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses, ECF No. [#], class counsel's request for an award of attorneys' fees of $[#] of the settlement funds, is approved.

Class Counsel's request for reimbursement of reasonable litigation costs and expenses in the total amount of $[#] is approved.

Plaintiff's request for an incentive award in the total amount of $[#] is approved.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
